3.0 Approval of Agenda

It was moved to approve the agenda as presented by Councillor Jenkins and seconded by Councillor McQuillan Motion Carried

To discuss the upcoming IRAC Public hearing scheduled for Wednesday Sept 12th in Montague

The floor was opened for questions and information. Councillors asked the Mayor what was being presented, was there an agenda. Was the Mayor prepared for questions and how he would answer. Councillors and Mayor expressed concerns and frustrations. The conversations went on for almost an hour and was heated at times. The meeting closed with an understanding that anything that would be presented by the Mayor would be the truth, and that it would represent the true feelings of the Council now and throughout the process. It was expressed that it was important that "OUR VOICE" as heard. The Mayor assured them he would answer with transparency and would not be presenting anything unless asked directly. It was noted that IRAC wanted representatives from each of the communities to be there, but it was not compulsory. It was also discussed that Montague was having their Mayor attend on their behalf as well.

4.0 Adjournment

The meeting was moved for adjournment by Councillor Hebert at 7:15
